

THE SPEECH

From Galexis;

In the meditation, you are surrounded by your Team, by the Divine, and including us. We now speak to you. Please allow yourself to receive it and take this induction to your own authenticity to heart. We love you and here is truth for you, authenticity of your spirit and soul. Bring these beliefs and knowings into you and expand to own them. Allow yourself to experience the impact of them in your life. This is the new contextual foundation, from which place you can guide your Positive Ego correctly to bring you new and better realities.

“Dear One,

By honoring the divine within you, know that you can feel safe and protected by your guides and Spiritual Team, safe on your spiritual path – a journey that is all about you fulfilling YOUR potential as God/Goddess – this is your Mission, your Great Work. The Universe loves you and supports you at every step of your Soul Journey. You are safe.

This reality was created precisely for you. It is YOURS, YOUR playing field that YOU have chosen, in a free-will based reality. In it, you can choose to create realities you like. It is reflecting the true you, showing you exactly what you need at just the right time so that you can become the God-Self you are. You are here to enjoy yourself, and to transcend the small you as you expand consciousness to become the Divine You. This reality is set up to have your best interest at heart in every moment and in every way. It is your friend.

Life is a gift. Everything is a gift. There is no competition because there's enough love and success for everyone. There's nothing to earn, nothing to prove. Your true self's identity is based on your capacity for love, not for what you can get or earn. Receiving great things is natural and normal to you, as a light being having a human physical plane existence.

You are safe while you are being seen, safe while being heard. You can speak out. You can be yourself at all times. You are okay, you are fine, all of you, every bit of you. You are loved regardless of your level of success, health, body shape, or any other physical factor. You are valuable and worthy because you are a radiant, brilliant Light Being whose very nature is divine.

You are loved completely and totally all the time. You are accepted in every way. And your Team is walking with and by you. With every step they accompany you on your journey. You are not alone. They want you to have what you want. Trust them. They and we are here for you.

Now feel gratitude for this wonderful life you are living, magical and miraculous. It's a gift to you from God/Goddess/All-That-Is. Thank them and feel gratitude for the Universe that is continuing to love you, support you, and be your friend – forever.”

It is done.

For a moment of silence, you hold these truths to your heart.
